Nobody connected with the club has anyments but me. I'm the boss on the field, and I intend to stay the boss. Of course, I make mistakes, and I don't mind being criticised for them, but I know a good player when I see one Mullen will stay on first base."

One Batsman Stays at Wicket for Over Two Hours for a Total of 62 Runs.

In a game characterized by brilliant batting throughout, the cricket match between the Metropolitan League and the New York Association was drawn yesterday at Livingston, Staten Island. The marked ascendancy which the batsmen had over the bowlers on both sides was shown by the fact that the first pair in each innings carried the score past the century mark before a separation was effected.

Winning the toss, the association men started batting on a hard wicket. A. Hoskings and B. Kortlang were opposed to Rushton and H. Poyer and runs came steadily, although Hoakings did by far the quicker scoring. Numerous bowling changes were tried, but the pair withstood all attacks until 104 was reached, when Hoskings was caught in the slips off Rushton for a meritorious innings of 74, which lasted for one hour and included eleven boundaries.

the partnership producing 4: runs, while G. Scott-Dalglish quickly hit up 42 by means of some tall and lofty driving. When Kortlang was at last dismissed by Hoyle he had been batting slightly over two hours and had scored 60 in patient innings.

The league started with J. L. Poyer and R. Belgrave to the bowling of A. Hoskings and H. W. Harper. Belgrave scored the faster of the two and the hundred went up with the two batsmen still together. Three runs later, however, Belgrave returned one to Maclennan and was out for 55. The best hitting of the day was seen when H. L. Woodroffe partnered Poyer. The new batsman soon began to force the game and hit nine boundaries in succession; in fact, 36 out of his 38 runs were made by this method.

Poyer continued playing steadily, and when stumps were drawn was not out, with 62 to his credit, having been at the wickets for two hours and five minutes.

A severe storm stopped play for three-quarters of an hour, and when bostilities were renewed the batsmen had a handicap of poor light, while the bowlers were compelled to trundle with a wet ball.
